

Once I escaped from an orphanage to find Mum and Dad.
Once I saved a girl called Zelda from a burning house.
Once I made a Nazi with a toothache laugh.
My name is Felix.
This is my story.

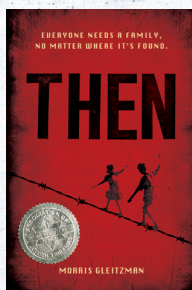

“Packed with plenty of sadness, Felix’s story is also touched with hope . . . A resonant shot to the heart—Gleitzman delivers a sharp sense of what it must have been like to be a child during the Holocaust, forced to grow up far too quickly.” —Kirkus Reviews

“This gripping novel will make readers want to find out more.” —Booklist

★ “Poignant.” —Publishers Weekly
